1 INTRODUCTION

In terms of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act (FAIS, Act 37 of 2002) every Financial Services Provider (FSP) who is authorised to provide financial advice and/or intermediary services to clients, have the duty to offer clients a formal process to resolve complaints. The complaint resolution process must offer the client the opportunity to lodge a complaint and have the complaint resolved within 6 weeks. In the event of the complaint not being resolved within 6 weeks the client can escalate the complaint to the FAIS Ombud for a final ruling. Such complaint must be lodged within six months after the determination that the complaint could not be resolved by the FSP.

2 COMPLAINTS MANAGEMENT MISSION

As an authorised FSP in terms of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act (Act 37 of 2002) we are committed to providing our clients with quality service and undertake to manage the affairs of our clients in such a way that it would not be necessary to have a complaint about our service, integrity and commitment. However should it happen that a client does have a complaint, we undertake to:

- Resolve client complaints in such a way that is fair to our clients, our FSP and our staff
- We undertake to inform all our clients of the procedures established for the internal resolution of their complaints, details of which will be given to them in writing
- We undertake to ensure easy access to our complaints resolution process at our offices, or by way of post, e-mail or telephone
- Empower and properly train the people in our FSP to deal with complaints, as well as with the escalation of non-routine complaints
- If necessary, appoint an independent mediator to resolve the complaint to the benefit of both the client and our FSP
- Deal with complaints in a timely and fair manner, with every complaint receiving proper consideration in a process that is managed appropriately and effectively by the responsible staff member
- Offer appropriate remedy in all cases where a complaint is resolved in favour of a client
- Inform clients of their right to refer their complaints to the FAIS Ombud, should a complaint not be resolved to their satisfaction within six weeks from the date on which the complaint is received
- Maintain records of all complaints received for a period of 5 years, which will specify the outcome of all the complaints lodged
- Implement follow-up procedures to:

- × Implement remedial actions to prevent similar complaints from occurring
- × Improve services and procedures where necessary within the FSP

3 DEFINITION OF A COMPLAINT

Complaint means a specific complaint relating to a financial service rendered to the client on or after the 30th of September 2004, being the commencement of FAIS, alleging that the FSP:

- Contravened or failed to comply with a provision of FAIS and that, as a result, the client has suffered or is likely to suffer financial prejudice or damage;
- Wilfully or negligently rendered a financial service to the client which has caused prejudice or damage to the client or which is likely to result in such prejudice or damage; or
- Treated the client unfairly

The complaint must not be about the investment performance of the product unless the financial performance was guaranteed or the financial performance was so deficient that it creates the presumption that there has been misrepresentation, negligence or mal-administration.

4 CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO COMPLAINTS

For a complaint to be valid, the following conditions have to be met:

- Where appropriate, a complainant refers to the client and also includes the complainant's lawful successor in title or the nominated beneficiary of the financial product which is the subject of the relevant complaint
- The act or omission complained of must have been done on or after 30 September 2004
- The complaint must be received by the Ombud within 3 years of the act or omission that resulted in the complaint – if the complainant was not aware of the act or omission, the 3 years starts running from the date on which the complainant became aware, or from the date on which the reasonable person in his circumstances would have become aware, whichever date is the earliest
- If the complainant already instituted action in a court of law relating to the matter forming the subject of the complaint submitted to the Ombud, the Ombud will not consider the complaint.
- The FSP must have been given the opportunity to resolve the complaint first. Only if the FSP failed to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the complainant within 6 weeks of receipt, may the complainant take the matter to the Ombud

- The complainant has 6 months after he received a final response from the person complained against, to go to the Ombud
- Complaints must be in writing and must be accompanied by relevant documentation
- The Ombud may refuse to consider a complaint if he believes that the complaint should be dealt with in court

- If the complaint cannot be resolved immediately, request supporting documentation (if any) from the client that may be necessary to resolve the matter and indicate the expected date of resolution
- If unable to resolve the complaint within 6 weeks of logging the complaint in the Complaints Register, notify the client accordingly and advise the client of his/her right to:
